DEADLINE TO EXPRESS INTEREST: AUGUST 31, 2025

CLASS 1 MELT PROGRAM

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN SEEING CLASS 1 MELT DRIVING TRAINING IN PRINCE RUPERT?

The class 1 Mandatory Entry-Level Training (MELT) program is a requirement for drivers applying for a Class 1 Driver's license.

B.C.'s comprehensive MELT program became a requirement for all new Class 1 applicants on October 18, 2021. The 140-hour course is designed to align with the new national Class 1 entry-level training standard introduced as part of the National Safety Code. The course includes theory learning, practical training at driving school and on-highway driving and includes learning about the operation of air brakes.
